

forking

- A fork generally refers to creating a copy of a repository.
- This copy allows you to make changes independently from the original repository.
- On GitHub, when you fork a repository, it creates a personal copy of the repository under your own account.

<https://github.com/artus-academy/workshops>

2. Click "Fork" button

1. Click "Star" button 🤔